This Saturday 19th May one of our British Institutions, the Royal Family, will celebrate the wedding of Prince Harry to Meghan Markle.

This week CHSG will be getting into the wedding fever by running a number of competitions in which House Achievement points can be won.

In tutor time students will be able to make flags and bunting to take home for when they watch the wedding.

See your Head of House or Mrs Durrett for information!

Competitions to take part in this week!

Design a dress for Meghan – HAP for all entrants and a prize for the winning design, which will be the one closest to her actual dress.

Write a poem for the wedding couple.

Compose a song for Harry and Meghan's first dance.

Design a royal plate.

(Paper plates available from Mrs Durrett)

Wedding cake bake off!
Cakes judged on Friday 18th.

Arrange a royal picnic Friday lunchtime with your friends. Each make something to share. E.g.:

- Red, white and blue Crispie cakes
- Royal Wedding strawberries
- Royal wedding bunting
- Flags

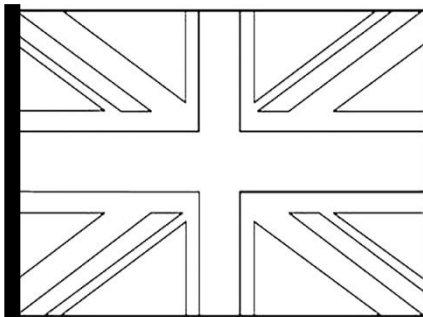

Bring a blanket!
HAPs awarded to any picnicking groups seen.

Tutor Time Activity!

Use the templates to make flags that you can wave as the couple walk down the aisle!

Two sheets,
which you colour
and stick together

Use a straw, stick,
twig or rolled up
paper. Be creative!

Use the templates to make bunting to add decoration to where you intend to watch the wedding.

Colour and stick to a long strip of paper.
