

1

Which politician has pulled out of the race to be the next Labour leader?

- a) Sir Keir Starmer
- b) Emily Thornberry
- c) Jess Phillips

2

What did Donald Trump call climate change activists at the Davos World Economic Forum?

- a) Doomster Gloomsters
- b) Miseryguts
- c) Prophets of Doom

3

What 'uncivilised behaviour' were people publicly shamed for in the Chinese city of Suzhou?

- a) Not cleaning their teeth
- b) Spitting on the street
- c) Wearing pyjamas in public

4

The US Senate has started an impeachment trial against Donald Trump on several charges including abuse of power. He could be removed from office. How many other USA presidents in history have been impeached?

- a) None!
- b) 2
- c) 10

5

This 1943 picture by LS Lowry which recently came to light was expected to sell for £700,000. How much did it sell for?

- a) £2.65m
- b) £50,000
- c) £760,000

6

A new virus: coronavirus, is thought to have spread from the Chinese city of Wuhan. Where exactly?

- a) A food market
- b) A primary school
- c) A pig farm

7

Which famous French fashion designer retired last week?

- a) Yves Saint-Laurent
- b) Jean-Paul Gaultier
- c) Louis Vuitton

8

Holocaust Memorial Day was last week. This year is special as it marks 75 years since which event?

- a) The start of the Second World War
- b) The liberation of Auschwitz concentration camp
- c) The kindertransport programme

9

A former world number one tennis player retired this week. Who?

- a) Venus Williams
- b) Heather Watson
- c) Caroline Wozniacki

Which supermarket chain will no longer use plastic wrapping of multipack tins?

- a) Tesco
- b) ASDA
- c) Sainsburys

