

1

What advice has the British government given to all British citizens in China over fears of coronavirus?

- a) Wear a facemask
- b) Leave the country
- c) Go to the nearest hospital

2

There is a debate about whether not paying the TV Licence Fee should be decriminalised. How much will a licence cost each year from April?

- a) £50.50
- b) £100.50
- c) £157.50

3

Ex PM David Cameron has an armed police bodyguard. Why did he get in trouble last week?

- a) He left his gun in an aeroplane toilet
- b) He left his gun at home
- c) He let David Cameron fire his gun.

4

Every year the President of the USA makes a State of the Union speech. What did Nancy Pelosi, the leader of the House of Representatives do with her copy?

- a) Tore it up!
- b) Drew pictures on it.
- c) Impromptu origami

5

Ireland is electing a new government soon. A party with historic links to the terrorist group the IRA is ahead in the polls. Who are they?

- a) Irish Labour
- b) Sinn Fein
- c) Fine Gael

6

Actress and song-writer Cynthia Erivo stands win an Oscar, a Grammy and a Tony award. What would be special about this?

- a) First Black person
- b) First Woman
- c) Youngest person

7

Footballer Bala Devi was signed by Glasgow Rangers.
What is special about this?

- a) First Indian female professional footballer
- b) Youngest female professional footballer
- c) Highest paid female in sport

8

What complaint did actor Joachim Phoenix make at the BAFTA awards?

- a) Over-representation of white males
- b) Under representation of white males
- c) Environmental impact of actors using private jets

