

10RDS Recommended Reads!

The Hate U Give –

Age rating: 13+

Author: Angie Thomas

The Hate U Give is an incredibly moving book about a young black American woman brought up in a majority white community. The book follows her journey standing up for her rights after witnessing the shooting of her childhood best friend by the police. While portraying a compelling storyline, the book is extremely educational, and highlights how different races are treated in modern day society. It deals with very relevant topics relating to racism and is the perfect gripping novel for your reading lessons.

The Sun Is Also a Star –

Age rating: 14+

Author: Nicola Yoon

The sun is also a star is a beautiful novel about the relationship between Natasha, an intelligent, logical young woman and Daniel, a bright, romantic young man. Fate draws them together, and the future is looking strong for the lovers. However, Natasha is hiding a painful secret. She is a day away from being deported to Jamaica. Will this be the end, or is fate on their side? This book will keep you reading for hours, it is incredibly gripping and will have you rooting for the pair. Will you join them on their journey?

