This will be an excellent opportunity for your daughter to develop her understanding of musical theatre through seeing one of the best productions currently running in the West End.

The show has been well received with outstanding reviews:

‘I haven’t been reminded of the power of kindness and tenderness in humans for a long time until I experienced Come from Away it reaffirmed that when we come together, no matter what challenges face us, we can succeed. Now more than any time in all of our lives, we should adopt this message of humanity.’

Luxurate Life Magazine rating it 5 stars

‘Amazing, heart-warming, funny and full of great music to an unforgettable event in time... and a true story too. I’ve seen it twice and would happily go again...’
