If a candidate is scheduled to take two or more exams in the same session on the same day and the total time is more than 3 hours, then one exam will be moved to the alternative session on the same day. After the first exam, students will have a supervised break in a separate room until the start of the next exam.

6. Entries, Late Entries and Resits

6.1 Entries

- Candidates are selected for their exam entries and levels by the subject teachers and Heads of Department. The Head of Department makes a recommendation to the Headteacher who will make the final decision if a dispute arises.
- Candidates, or parents, cannot request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal
- The Examinations Manager will notify all students of intended entries for all series. Students must check their entries and notify their subject teacher and the exams office of any suspected errors.
- The school does not accept entries from external candidates.
- The school has the discretion to make alterations to entries after the initial entry date. All changes will be notified to students.

- Students are expected to attend each examination with the correct equipment. Students have a responsibility to check the time of each examination and to ensure they attend all examinations they have been entered for.
- On the date of the publication of examination results 'Results Day' the school will be open for students to collect their own results.

6.2 Late entries

- Entry deadlines are circulated to Heads of Department
- Late entries are usually paid by curriculum areas.

6.3 Resits

- Students are not allowed to resit GCSEs unless authorised by the Headteacher in special circumstances.
- Resits for GCSE English and Maths are only available to students who follow the course in our Sixth Form.

Resit decisions will be made in consultation with the candidates, subject teachers and Heads of Department. (See also section 7: Exam Fees).

Candidates or curriculum areas will not be charged for changes of tier, withdrawals made by the proper procedures or alterations arising from administrative processes, provided these are made within the time allowed by the awarding bodies.

Further details regarding Examination fees can be found in section 2.2 of the GLT's Charges and Remissions policy

Candidates must pay the fee for an enquiry about a result, should the school not uphold the enquiry and the candidate insist on pursuing the enquiry. (See also section 13.2 Enquiries about Results [EARs])

8. The Equality Act (EA), special needs, access arrangements and training.

8.1 The Equality Act (EA)

The Equality Act 2010 extends the application of the EA to general qualifications. All exam centre staff must ensure that the access arrangements and special consideration regulations and guidance are consistent with the law.

The work undertaken by the SENDCo and the Exams Manager already significantly address the requirement of the EA. The key guidance in this work is provided by the Joint Council for Qualifications booklet Access Arrangements and Special Consideration: Regulations and Guidance relating to candidates who are eligible for adjustments in examinations.

The school will ensure that there is suitable access and examination rooms are suitable for purpose and accessible in accordance with EA requirements. For example:

- If candidates are known to be unwell during the exam, because of the nature of their disability, we will ensure that they are seated close to the exit
- Ensure that seating is appropriate and comfortable for those who have a disability that affects seating and posture.

Signage

- Signs for the examination and those provided by JCQ are suitably sized and adapted to meet the needs of candidates with a disability
- Signs will be simple, short and easily understood

- Texts and lettering will be clear and uncomplicated
- Style, wording, design and height will be consistent throughout the exam centre and contrast with the colour of the walls.

8.2 Special Needs

A candidate's special needs requirements are determined by the designated member of SLT/SENDCo, or doctor and the Educational Psychologist/specialist teacher with support for the specialist assessor

The Designated member of SLT/SENDCo will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs who are embarking on a course leading to an exam. The designated member of SLT/SENDCo can then inform individual staff of any special arrangements that individual candidates may be granted during the course and in the exam.

8.3 Access arrangements

Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the SENDCo and Deputy SENDCo.

~~Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the SENDCo with the Exams Officer~~ Making appropriate arrangements for candidates to take exams is the responsibility of the Exams Manager.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the SENDCo with the Exams Manager.

Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates will be organised by the SENDCo with support of the Exams Manager.

8.4 Special Consideration

- Should a candidate be ill before an examination, suffer bereavement or other trauma, be taken ill during the examination itself or otherwise disadvantaged or disturbed during an examination, then it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the Centre, the Senior Invigilator or the Exams Manager, to that effect.
- The candidate must support any special consideration claim with supporting evidence within three days of the examination, for example, if a student is unable to attend due to illness, a letter from the candidate's doctor must be provided.
- The Exams Manager will forward a completed special consideration form to the relevant awarding body, within the set deadline imposed by the awarding authority, providing that the appropriate evidence has been provided and that the Centre supports the application.

8.5 Training

All invigilators will receive training on "promoting disability equality in school" by the Exams Manager. (See a CHSG Commitment to Equality and Diversity Policy).

Invigilation training will also be provided to invigilators with an update on the current year's JCQ Regulations.

9. Managing invigilators and exam days

9.1 Managing Invigilators

External invigilators will be used for external exam supervision and some internal exams. The recruitment of invigilators is the responsibility of the Exams Manager and the member of SLT responsible for Exams.

Securing the necessary Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of HR in the GLT Trust. DBS fees for securing such clearance are paid by the centre.

Invigilators' rates of pay are set by the Head Teacher. Invigilators are timetabled and briefed by the Exams Manager.

9.2 Exam Days

The Exams Manager will book all exam rooms after liaison with the designated member of SLT and Cover Manager and make the question papers, exam stationery and materials available.

Premises staff are responsible for setting up the Hall and Gym and other areas used for examinations, as guided by the Exams Manager.

The day, date, time, subject, unit/component and tier of entry must be checked by both the Examinations Manager and an additional member of staff (e.g. an invigilator) immediately before the packet is opened.

Subject staff may be present at the start of the exam (outside the exam venue) to assist with identification of candidates, but must not advise on which questions are to be attempted and must leave the venue before the exam begins. These staff are not allowed to answer any queries surrounding the paper and under no circumstances should they view a paper.

The Examination Manager, SLT and Senior Invigilator will start all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines. These staff are not allowed to answer any queries surrounding the paper.

Senior staff who line manage departments are not allowed to enter the room where examinations are being taken in areas that they line manage, unless it is necessary to do so and no other SLT are available.

In practical exams, subject teachers will be on hand in case of any technical difficulties.

Exam papers must not be removed from the exam room and must never be left unattended.

Misconduct must be reported to the Exams Manager, in the first instance, who will decide what action to take. See malpractice information in Appendix C.

10. Candidates, clash candidates and special consideration

10.1 Candidates

The schools published rules on acceptable dress, behaviour and candidates' use of mobile phones and all electronic devices apply at all times. Mobile phones and smart watches are to be handed in before entering the examination room.

Candidates are under formal examination conditions from the moment they enter the exam room and until the point that they are permitted to leave, without returning

Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the school accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

Candidates are allowed to bring in a bottle of water, not greater than 500ml, for their personal consumption during the examination. The bottle must be clear, see-through and have no labels attached to the bottle.

Candidates may bring a pencil case into the examination room, but this must be transparent.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

It is the students' responsibility if ~~they are late for their exams, or do not turn up at all~~ to attend all of their scheduled exams and to arrive punctually. The Exams Manager will attempt to contact any candidate who is not present at the start of an examination and deal with them in accordance with JCQ guidelines

Candidates may not leave an examination early except in exceptional circumstances.

10.2 Clash Candidates

The Exams Manager will be responsible for ~~identifying~~ arranging escorts, identifying a secure venue, and arranging overnight supervision of candidates if necessary.

11. Coursework / NEA and appeals against internal assessments

Candidates are informed about their rights of appeals and access to scripts, through the examination packs given out with statements of entries and during briefing assemblies.

11.1 Coursework

Candidates who have to prepare portfolios should do so by the school-defined date.

Heads of Department will ensure all coursework is ready for dispatch at the correct time and the Exams Manager will keep a record of what has been sent when and to whom.

Marks for all internally assessed work are provided to the Exams Office by the subject teachers and Heads of Department by the date specified by the Exams Manager.

The conduct of all NEA/Coursework is governed by the regulations set out in the JCQ booklet published each year

11.2 Appeals against internally assessed units

The school has published a separate procedure on this subject, which is available from the Exams Office and can also be found on the school's website.

12. Results, Enquiries about Results (EARs) and Access to Scripts (ATS)

12.1 Results

Candidates will receive individual Statements of Results on the published Results Days. These are to be collected from the centre in person.

Arrangements for the school to be open on the A level and GCSE Results Days are made by the Exams Manager.

The provision of staff on Results Days is the responsibility of the Exams Manager in liaison with the SLT with responsibility for Exams ~~the Office Manager~~.

12.2 Enquiry about Results (EARs)

EARs may be requested by teachers or candidates if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking.

If a result is queried, the Head of Department will inform the Exams Manager to investigate the feasibility of requesting a review of marking at the school's expense. Candidate consent must be obtained before applying for this.

When the school does support an EAR, a candidate may apply to have a ~~an enquiry carried out~~ Review of Marking. If a candidate requires this against the advice of subject staff, they will ~~pay~~ be responsible for paying the exam board fees (See section 7: Exam fees).

12.3 Access to Scripts

The regulations surrounding access to scripts is governed by the JCQ and Exam Board regulations

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of papers. Signed consent needs to be obtained from the candidate for this.

Teachers may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. ~~For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.~~ Candidate consent must be obtained in either scenario.

If students should require their original exam scripts to be returned to them, they will be required to pay the relevant fee, complete the paperwork provided by the Exams Manager and return it by the exam boards' Access to Scripts deadline.

13. Certificates

~~A letter will be sent home to students who have left the school to inform them that their certificates are ready for collection. Certificates are collected in person. Certificates may be collected on behalf of a candidate by a third party, provided they have been authorised to do so by the student and show appropriate picture identification.~~

The official certificates are issued by the exam boards after the review of marking period has ended. They are then checked and collated by the exams office staff. When the certificate packs are ready, the Exams Manager will email those students who have left the school and those who have stayed in Sixth Form to inform them that their certificates are ready for collection.

Certificates must be collected in person and photo ID must be shown on collection. If a student cannot collect their certificates themselves, they may authorise a third party to collect on their behalf. In this instance, the student must email the Exams Manager in advance of the collection day, naming their representative.

The school retains exam certificates for 12 months. After this time, they are destroyed, in accordance with JCQ guidance.

It is not possible for the school to obtain replacement certificates. If a student loses their certificates or they are damaged, it is the candidate's responsibility to liaise directly with examination boards to obtain a replacement and pay the relevant fee.

14. Risk Assessment

Emergency evacuation during an examination:

- The Centre staff will ensure that children that students stay calm and seated until they are told what to do and where to go.
- Examination emergency procedures are available in every exam room and in the Invigilation folder in each exam room.

15. Contingency Planning

This plan examines potential risks and issues that could cause disruption to the exams process at Carshalton High School for Girls. By outlining actions/procedures to be invoked in case of disruption it is intended to mitigate the impact these disruptions have on our exam process.

Alongside internal processes, this plan is informed by the Ofqual (and Northern Ireland Council for the Curriculum, Examinations and Assessment) Exam system contingency plan: England, Wales and Northern Ireland which provides guidance in the publication What schools and colleges and other centres should do if exams or other assessments are seriously disrupted and the JCQ Joint Contingency Plan for the Examination System in England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

It is the Exams Manager's responsibility to liaise with the awarding bodies directly should there be any disruption. At this point the school's contingency planning will also come into force if necessary.

In the event that the Head of Centre decides the Centre cannot be opened for scheduled examinations the relevant awarding body must be informed as soon as possible. Advice will then be taken from the awarding body as to alternative arrangements for conducting examinations that may be available and the options for candidates who have not been able to take the scheduled examination, for example in the case of severe weather conditions. In the event of the Sports Hall being out of use on an examination day, the Hall and Gym will be set up as the first alternative. In the event of the school being out of use on an examination day then Wallington High School for Girls will be the alternative venue, followed by Nonsuch High School for Girls.

Awarding bodies designate a 'Contingency Day' each year for examinations for instances where there has been a national or local disruption to examinations. Candidates have to remain available up until the day specified by the awarding bodies.

Further Guidance to inform and implement contingency planning

JCQ, Instructions for Conducting Examinations (ICE), 2022/24 – Section 15

Contingency Planning

The qualification regulators, awarding bodies and government departments responsible for education have prepared and agreed information for schools and colleges in the event of examinations being seriously disrupted. This jointly agreed information will ensure consistency of response in the event of major disruption to the examinations system affecting significant numbers of candidates.

In addition, awarding bodies have their own well-established contingency plans in place to respond to disruptions. It is important that exams officers who are facing disruption liaise directly with the relevant awarding body/bodies.

Centres should prepare plans for any disruption to examinations as part of their general emergency planning. It is important to ensure that relevant centre staff are familiar with the plan. Consideration should be given as to how these arrangements will be communicated to candidates, parents and staff should disruption to examinations occur.

In the event that the head of centre decides the centre cannot be opened for scheduled examinations, the relevant awarding body must be informed as soon as possible. Awarding bodies will be able to offer advice regarding the alternative arrangements for conducting examinations that may be available and the options for candidates who have not been able to take scheduled examinations.

The awarding bodies will designate 'contingency days' for examinations, summer 2023. This is consistent with the qualification regulators' document Exam system contingency plan: England, Wales and Northern Ireland:

National Cyber Security Centre

The NCSC's free Web Check and Mail Check services can help protect schools from cyber-attacks. Two NCSC cyber security services, which are already helping thousands of organisations to protect their websites and email servers from cyber-attacks, are now available to all UK schools. Both tools are available free of charge, are quick to set up, and thereafter run automatically. More information is available from the <https://www.ncsc.gov.uk/>.

The Department for Education has been asking centres to review National Cyber Security Centre advice following increasing number of cyber-attacks involving ransomware infections. The NCSC information supports centres in cyber security preparedness and mitigation work. Ransomware attacks continue and the Department is reminding centres to review the NCSC advice and to take precautions. This includes ensuring that you have backups in place for your key services and data.

Appendix B Word Processing

1. Centre Information

Centre Name	Carshalton High School for Girls
Centre Number	14705
SENDCo	Karen Bramson
Exams Manager	Rebecca Maybury
Senior Leader	Peter Baumann-Winn – Head of Centre
IT Manager	Rohan Lewis

2. Introduction

This policy on the use of word processors in examinations and assessments is reviewed and updated annually, on the publication of the updated JCQ regulations and guidance contained in the publications:

- Access Arrangements and Reasonable Adjustments: <https://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/access-arrangements-and-special-consideration/> referred to as EAA
- Instructions for conducting examinations: <https://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/ice---instructions-for-conducting-examinations/> referred to as ICE.

The use of a word processor in exams and assessments is an available access arrangement.

Centres are allowed to provide a word processor with the spelling and grammar check facility/predictive text disabled (switched off) to a candidate where it is their normal way of working within the centre. For example, the quality of language significantly improves because of using a word processor due to problems with planning and organisation when writing by hand. (This also extends to the use of electronic brailers and tablets.)

The use of word processors in non-examination assessment components will be considered standard practice unless prohibited by the specification.

It is permissible for a candidate using a word processor in an examination to type certain questions, i.e. those requiring extended writing, and handwrite shorter answers. NB Examinations which have a significant amount of writing, as well as those that place a greater demand on the need to organise thought and plan extended answers, are those where candidates will frequently need to type. Examinations which require more simplistic answers are often easier to handwrite within the answer booklet as the candidate avoids the difficulty of visually tracking between the question paper and computer screen.

For the regulations on the use of word processors in written examinations, please see the JCQ publication Instructions for conducting examinations (commonly known as the JCQ 'ICE' booklet):

3. Purpose of the policy

This policy details how Carshalton High School for Girls complies with AA, chapter 4 (Managing the needs of candidates and principles for centres), section 5.8 (Word processor) and ICE, sections 14.20-27 (Word processors (computers, laptops and tablets) when awarding and allocating a candidate the use of word processor in examinations.

The term 'word processor' is used to describe for example, the use of a computer, laptop or tablet.

4. Qualifications for use

Carshalton High School for Girls will not:

- simply grant the use of a word processor to a candidate because he/she now wants to type rather than write in examinations or can work faster on a keyboard, or because he/she uses a laptop at home (AA 5.8.4)

Carshalton High School for Girls will:

- allocate the use of a word processor with the spelling and grammar check / predictive text disabled (switched off) where it is their normal way of working within the centre (AA 5.8.1
- award the use of a word processor to a candidate where appropriate to their needs (AA 5.8.4). For example, a candidate with:

- a diagnosed learning difficulty which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to write legibly
- a diagnosed medical condition
- a diagnosed physical disability
- a diagnosed sensory impairment
- such poor handwriting that it would be illegible when writing during an exam
- planning or organisational problems when writing
- only permit the use of a word processor where the integrity of the assessment can be maintained (AA 4.2.1)
- not grant the use of a word processor where it will compromise the assessment objectives of the specification in question (AA.4.2.2)
- consider on a subject-by-subject basis if the candidate will need to use a word processor in each specification (AA 4.2.3)
- process access arrangements / reasonable adjustments at the start of the course, or as soon as practicable having firmly established a picture of need and normal way of working, ensuring arrangements are always approved before an examination or assessment (AA 4.2.4)
- provide the use of word processors to candidates in non-examination assessment components as standard practice unless prohibited by the specification (AA 5.8.2)

The following evidence would be required to justify a student using a word processor/tablet for one or more of their examinations;

- They fall below the writing speed or legibility or comprehensibility threshold in the formal access arrangements assessment
- Teachers report that the pupil has illegible handwriting. This must be supported with a sample of the writing and the SENDCO must agree with the judgment
- Teachers report that the pupil has very slow handwriting so that they rarely complete a timed test. This must be supported with a sample of timed writing. This could be followed up with a formal assessment of writing speed.
- There is a diagnosed medical condition made by trained medical professional that clearly states the use of a word processor / tablet would be required for examinations

Regardless of which of the above applies, the pupil must be able to demonstrate that they can competently use a laptop (i.e. typing speed) and if possible, this should have been practiced in at least one series of exams before the end of Year 11.

If a student is deemed to need the use of word processor / tablet for her examinations this does not necessarily mean they will have access to one for every exam they take – see point 4.6 for an explanation of this

The decision to issue a word processors / tablets will rest with the SENDCO and the member of staff who has the responsibility to assess for exam access arrangements, in conjunction with the Exams Manager.

4 Exceptions

The only exceptions to the above where the use of a word processor would be considered for a candidate, would be:

- In the event of a temporary injury or impairment, or a diagnosis of a disability or manifestation of an impairment relating to an existing disability arising after the start of the course (AA 4.2.4)
- Where the curriculum is delivered electronically and the centre provide word processors for all candidates (AA 5.8.4)

5 Arrangements for the use of a word processor

Carshalton High School for Girls will ensure that the word processors (ICE 14.25):

- be used as a typewriter, not as a database, although standard formatting software is acceptable and is not connected to an intranet or any other means of communication
- have been cleared of any previously stored data
- that use portable storage medium will be provided by the centre and any previously stored data on that device is cleared
- be in good working order at the time of the examination
- in only used in a way to produce scripts under secure conditions, otherwise they may be refused

- are not used to perform skills which are being assessed
- is accommodated in such a way that ensures a candidate are not disturbed and cannot read the screen.
- is not connected to an intranet or any other means of communication
- do not give the candidate access to other applications such as a calculator (where prohibited in the examination), spreadsheets etc.
- do not include graphic packages or computer aided design software unless permission has been given to use these
- do not have any predictive text software or an automatic spelling and grammar check enabled unless the candidate has been permitted a scribe or is using speech recognition technology (a scribe cover sheet must be completed), or the awarding body's specification permits the use of automatic spell checking (ICE 14.20)
- do not include speech recognition technology unless the candidate has permission to use a scribe or relevant software
- does not include computer reading (text to speech) software unless the candidate has permission to use a computer reader
- are not used on the candidate's behalf by a third party unless the candidate has permission to use a scribe
- where a candidate is to be seated with the main cohort without the use of a power point) checks the battery capacity of the word processor before the candidate's exam to ensure that the battery is sufficiently charged for the entire duration of the exam (ICE 14.21)
- ensures the candidate is reminded to ensure that the centre number, candidate number and the unit/component code appear on each page as a header or footer e.g. 12345/8001 – 6391/01 (ICE 14.22)
- if a candidate is using a software application that does not allow for the insertion of a header or footer, once the candidate has completed the examination and printed off their typed script, he/she is instructed to handwrite their details as a header or footer; the candidate is supervised throughout this process to ensure that he/she is solely performing this task and not re-reading their answers or amending their work in any way (ICE 14.22)
- ensures the candidate understands that each page of the typed script must be numbered, e.g. page 1 of 6 (ICE 14.23)
- ensures the candidate is reminded to save his/her work at regular intervals (or where possible, an IT technician will set up 'autosave' on each laptop/tablet to ensure that if there is a complication or technical issue, the candidate's work is not lost) (ICE 14.24)
- instructs the candidate to use a minimum of 12pt font and double spacing to make marking easier for examiners (ICE 14.24)

When printing the script after the exam has ended, Carshalton High School for Girls will ensure that:

- the word processor either be connected to a printer so that a script can be printed off, or have the facility to print from a portable storage medium.
- the candidate must be present to verify that the work printed is his or her own.
- a word-processed script is attached to any answer booklet which contains some of the answers
- where an awarding body requires a cover sheet to be completed this is included with the candidate's typed script (according to the relevant body's awarding instructions)
- if a candidate omits to insert the required header or footer, he/she is instructed to handwrite the details as a header or footer; the candidate is supervised throughout this process to ensure that he/she is solely performing this task and not re-reading their answers or amending their work in any way (ICE 14.22)

STATEMENT

JCQ regulations (Access Arrangements and Reasonable Adjustments, section 5.8) state: A member of the centre's senior leadership team must produce a statement for inspection purposes which details the criteria the centre uses to award and allocate word processors for examinations.

The criteria Carshalton High School for Girls uses to award and allocate word processors for examinations

Carshalton High School for Girls confirms the normal way of working in examinations is:

- candidates handwrite responses on their examination scripts (an exception to this is where a candidate may have an approved access arrangement in place, for example the use of a scribe/speech recognition technology)

Awarding the use of word processors

There are also exceptions where a candidate may be awarded/allocated the use of a word processor in exams where the candidate has a firmly established need, it reflects the candidate's normal way of working and by not being awarded a word processor would be at a substantial disadvantage to other candidates.

Needs might include where a candidate has, for example:

- a learning difficulty which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to write legibly
- a medical condition
- a physical disability
- a sensory impairment
- planning and organisational problems when writing by hand
- poor handwriting

(This list is not exhaustive)

The only exception to the above where the use of a word processor may be considered for a candidate would be:

- on a temporary basis as a consequence of a temporary injury at the time of the assessment
- where a subject within the curriculum is delivered electronically and the centre provides word processors to all candidates

Arrangements for the use of word processors at the time of the assessment

Appropriate exam-compliant word processors will be provided by the Girls Learning Trust in liaison with the SENDCo and the Exams Manager. In exceptional circumstances where the number of appropriate word processors may be insufficient for the cohort of candidates approved to use them in an exam session, the cohort will be split into two groups. One group will sit the exam earlier than or later than the awarding body's published start time. The security of the exam will be maintained at all times and candidates will be supervised in line with section 7.2 of ICE.

Appendix C

Malpractice

Malpractice, including maladministration, means any act, default or practice which is a breach of the regulations that apply to the exam or assessment being taken. This can involve centre staff as well as students.

Malpractice doesn't necessarily involve an intention to cheat or gain an unfair advantage. The vast majority of allegations that JCQ awarding bodies deal with involve unintentional breaches of the regulations, usually caused by a lack of knowledge of the requirements contained in the JCQ Instructions for Conducting Examinations (ICE) ICE 23-24 Final-March-2024.pdf \(jcq.org.uk\). However, even when malpractice is unintentional, the consequences can be significant.

Malpractice also doesn't necessarily only affect the students involved – a breach of the regulations could potentially impact all students at every centre taking that assessment.

When an awarding body has received a credible allegation of malpractice they have a duty to establish whether the malpractice or maladministration has occurred. The process that awarding bodies follow so is set out in Malpractice - JCQ Joint Council for Qualifications

This appendix covers all qualifications delivered by the school and its purpose is to ensure that all staff and students:

- are aware of what constitutes malpractice;
- understand how to prevent it from occurring so that they can actively take steps to prevent it; and where malpractice does occur, take prompt action to report it.

Details below outline how students are informed and advised to avoid committing malpractice in examinations/assessments, and how suspected malpractice issues should be escalated within the school and reported to the relevant awarding body.

It is the responsibility of everyone involved in the exam processes to read, understand and implement all parts of the exams policy, which will be reviewed annually by the Head of Centre, Senior Leader in charge of examinations and the Exams Manager.

Malpractice and maladministration

'Malpractice' and 'maladministration' are related concepts, the common theme of which is that they involve a failure to follow the rules of an examination or assessment. This policy and procedure uses the word 'malpractice' to cover both 'malpractice' and 'maladministration' and it means any act, default or practice which is:

- a breach of the regulations;
- a breach of awarding body requirements regarding how a qualification should be delivered; and/or
- a failure to follow established procedures in relation to a qualification; which:

- gives rise to prejudice to candidates;
- compromises public confidence in qualifications;
- compromises, attempts to compromise or may compromise the process of assessment, the integrity of any qualification or the validity of a result or certificate; and/or
- damages the authority, reputation or credibility of any awarding body or centre or any officer, employee or agent of any awarding body or centre.

Malpractice may be:

- intentional, aiming to give a candidate or candidates an unfair advantage or disadvantage in an examination or assessment;
- due to a lack of awareness of the regulations, carelessness, or forgetfulness in applying the regulations (which may often be called 'maladministration'); and/or • as a result of the force of circumstances which are beyond the control of those involved (e.g. a fire alarm sounds and the supervision of students is disrupted).

Candidate malpractice

'Candidate malpractice' means:

- malpractice by a candidate in connection with any examination or assessment, including the preparation and authentication of any controlled assessments, coursework or non-examination assessments, the presentation of any practical work, the compilation of portfolios of assessment evidence and the writing of any examination paper.

Centre staff malpractice

'Centre staff malpractice' means malpractice committed by:

- a member of staff, contractor (whether employed under a contract of employment or a contract for services) or a volunteer at a centre; or
- an individual appointed in another capacity by a centre such as an invigilator, a Communication Professional, a Language Modifier, a practical assistant, a prompter, a reader or a scribe.

In accordance with the regulations, the school will:

- take all reasonable steps to prevent the occurrence of any malpractice (which includes maladministration) before, during and after examinations have taken place;
- inform the awarding body immediately of any alleged, suspected or actual incidents of malpractice or maladministration, involving a candidate or a member of staff, by completing the appropriate documentation; and
- as required by an awarding body, gather evidence of any instances of alleged or suspected malpractice (which includes maladministration) in accordance with the JCQ publication Suspected Malpractice - Policies and Procedures and provide such information and advice as the awarding body may reasonably require.

Preventing Malpractice

- The school has in place robust processes to prevent and identify malpractice, as outlined in section 3 of the JCQ publication Suspected Malpractice: Policies and Procedures. Malpractice - JCQ Joint Council for Qualifications
- This includes ensuring that all staff involved in the delivery of assessments and examinations understand the requirements for conducting these as specified in all of the JCQ documents and any further awarding body guidance:
  - Malpractice Mar24 Revision One FINAL.pdf \(jcq.org.uk\)
  - Plagiarism in Assessments - JCQ Joint Council for Qualifications
  - AI Use in Assessments: Protecting the Integrity of Qualifications - JCQ Joint Council for Qualifications
  - Appeals Booklet 2023 FINAL.pdf \(jcq.org.uk\)

Informing and advising candidates and staff

- Students are informed about malpractice, how to avoid committing malpractice and what steps to take if they suspect malpractice has been committed through an annual assembly and followed up with a voiced PowerPoint and a written booklet that is sent home to students and parents along with a copy of the JCQ document Information for candidates.
- Staff are reminded at an annual briefing of the importance of reporting any incidences of suspected, alleged or actual malpractice to the Exams Manager, and of knowing the specific regulations relating to internal assessment for the qualifications in their subject as well as general regulations about malpractice. Staff are also provided with guidance from JCQ's publication Plagiarism in Assessments to ensure that they are confident about what constitutes malpractice. Regular reminders and signposting to our policy and JCQ documentation run throughout the year.

Identification and Reporting of Malpractice

Reporting suspected malpractice to the awarding body

- The Head of Centre will notify the appropriate awarding body immediately of all alleged, suspected or actual incidents of malpractice, using the appropriate forms, and will conduct any investigation and gathering of information in accordance with the requirements of the JCQ publication Suspected Malpractice: Policies and Procedures.
- The Head of Centre will ensure that where a candidate who is a child/vulnerable adult is the subject of a malpractice investigation, the candidate's parent/carer/ appropriate adult is kept informed of the progress of the investigation.
- Form JCQ/M1 will be used to notify an awarding body of an incident of candidate malpractice. Form JCQ/M2 will be used to notify an awarding body of an incident of suspected staff malpractice/maladministration. These forms can be obtained from the Exams Manager and the SLT lead for exams and are stored on our staff home page.
- Malpractice by a candidate discovered in a controlled assessment, coursework or non-examination assessment component prior to the candidate signing the declaration of authentication need not be reported to the awarding body but will be dealt with in accordance with the centre's internal procedures. The only exception to this is where the awarding body's confidential assessment material has potentially been breached. The breach will be reported to the awarding body immediately.
- If, in the view of the investigator, there is sufficient evidence to implicate an individual in malpractice, that individual (a candidate or a member of staff) will be informed of the rights of accused individuals.
- Once the information gathering has concluded, the Head of Centre (or other appointed information-gatherer) will submit a written report summarising the information obtained and actions taken to the relevant awarding body, accompanied by the information obtained during the course of their enquiries.
- Form JCQ/M1 will be used when reporting candidate cases; for centre staff, form JCQ/M3 will be used.
- The awarding body will decide on the basis of the report, and any supporting documentation, whether there is evidence of malpractice and if any further investigation is required. The Head of Centre will be informed accordingly.

Communicating Malpractice Decisions

Once a decision has been made, it will be communicated in writing to the head of centre as soon as possible. The Head of Centre will communicate the decision to the individuals concerned and pass on details of any sanctions and action in cases where this is indicated. The Head of Centre will also inform the individuals if they have the right to appeal.

Appeals against Decisions made in Cases of Malpractice

The school will:

- provide the individual with information on the process and timeframe for submitting an appeal, where relevant; and
- refer to further information and follow the process provided in the JCQ publication A guide to the awarding bodies' appeals processes.
