1. Statement and Intent

Carshalton High School for Girls promotes an environment where all students are kind, reflective, resilient and responsible and where students can learn in a safe and calm environment. The school has high expectations for student behaviour.

All within the school community should feel willing and able to report bullying behaviour without fear, confident that they will be listened to and that action will be taken to try to resolve the situation.

CHSG is aware of the statutory responsibility to discipline students for poor behaviour outside the school premises. Section 89(5) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 gives Headteachers the power to discipline students for poor behaviour when they are not on school premises. This can relate to bullying incidents occurring anywhere on or off the school premises.

This policy should be used alongside the school's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy as peer-on-peer abuse must be considered as a potential source of significant harm.

2. Aims

- To support the Good Behaviour Policy.
- To ensure all members of the school community understand that bullying will not be tolerated and students are empowered to keep themselves safe.

6. Prevention of bullying

The school works towards preventing bullying from occurring by educating students about discrimination and anti-bullying through the curriculum, the Pastoral Development Programme (PDP), assemblies and Anti-bullying Week.

The school's Kindness Charter details our ethos, culture and attitude towards anti-bullying and is promoted in school and with parents/carers.

Student anti-bullying ambassadors work across the school to promote kindness.

The pastoral support teams, which include form tutors, Pastoral Support Officers and Heads of Year, promote anti-bullying and support students if concerns are raised. Their close relationship with students means they will often become aware of unkindness at an early stage.

7. Reporting of bullying

The usual ways to report instances of unkindness and bullying are:

- Students have a pastoral support structure with tutor, Pastoral Support Officer and Assistant Head and Head of Year who they can report bullying and unkindness to.
- Students can report issues relating to unkindness on the on-line portal 'SHARP'. This system is designed to support students when they do not feel comfortable speaking to a member of staff
- Students can speak to a student Anti-bullying Ambassador during break or lunch time.
- Parents/carers should report concerns to the tutor, Assistant Head of Year, Head of Year or Pastoral Support Officer. This is by telephone, email or in person.
- In any instance parents/carers can report their concerns to any member of staff including the Senior Leadership Team or Designated Safeguarding Lead. All staff have a responsibility to pass on this information to the relevant pastoral team for investigation.

8. Procedures to deal with bullying or suspected bullying

When bullying/ suspected bullying is reported, it must always be treated seriously, with discretion and carefully investigated in a timely manner. The procedure for dealing with bullying is set out below:

In the first instance unkindness will be dealt with by the teacher which is first aware.

- Action could be a level 1 detention or a restorative meeting.

More serious instances that satisfy the definition of bullying will be referred to the Head of Year. The HOY will:

- conduct investigation including taking statements from all relevant parties
- Inform the parent/carer
- Make a judgement on action to be taken

If the HOY determines bullying has taken place they will:

- Record the bullying on CPOMS using the peer to peer category
 - Will be recorded in both the student/s causing harm and the student/s affected
- Issue the appropriate sanction:
 - Classcharts
 - Level 2 ARC
 - Level 3 suspension
